Colonial Days at Chautauqua

Our multi-age program celebrated their Colonial Days study course with a day of authentic costumes, commerce, schools, cuisine and sea voyages.

At Chautauqua we focus on Respect for SOLE.

SOLE at Chautauqua

What is SOLE?

S.O.L.E. stands for Self, Others, Learning and Environment...SOLE...and we all try to show respect for each of them every day.

Check out the SOLE Center on our website.

The Golden Dustpan

A new addition to the SOLE celebration family is the Golden Dustpan. Our school custodians select a class each week that has shown Respect for the Environment by keeping their classroom clean and they awarded the dustpan.

The SOLE Shoes

The SOLE Shoes made their way to Doug Swan's 5th grade class. Through the Purple Pinkie Project his students helped raise $620.00 to combat polio around the world. The shoes then strolled to Ms. Burrell's 5th grade class for raising over $1000 towards the Camp Waskowitz scholarship fund.

Morning Music

Doug Swan brought out his accordion for a turn at Morning Music.

We're always looking for musicians to help us welcome the students.

Let the office know if you'd like to join the fun and we'll be happy to talk about it.

Read Across America Assembly

On March 2nd students gathered in the gym to observe Read Across America Day and Dr. Seuss' birthday. Books were read, songs were sung and students took the Reader's Oath.

5th graders Eva, Eliza and Maren read Dr. Seuss' classic Green Eggs and Ham.

Ms. Berliner's multi-age class joined Lance Morgan in a rendition of Randy Peterson's song "I'm Gonna Read a Book Today" and Columbian teacher intern Andres Cervantes shared some writing from Columbian children's author Anibal Nino.

Here's one excerpt:

What is a cat?

A cat is a drop of tiger

Heifer International Reading Project

Glenda Berliner's multi-age class is leading the way in this year's Read to Feed fundraiser. This program encourages childhood literacy while raising funds to stop poverty and hunger in their tracks. All students will receive information about how to participate. You can learn more about this campaign at www.heifer.org/readtofeed

1st Grade Chinese New Year Parade

Students in Ms. Boyajian's, Ms. Muller's and Ms. Herrington's 1st grade class rang in the Year of the Monkey with a Chinese New Year parade complete with dragons and drums.

Leprechaun Traps

The kindergarten leprechaun traps are currently on display in the CES library for a couple of weeks. We encourage everyone to drop by and check them out.

They really are creative and, though we haven't actually seen any leprechauns, these traps are ready to snap.
