Confidentiality and Ethics

The issues of confidentiality and ethics are extremely important when working with students and staff in the Vashon Island School District.

Any person who may have access to confidential student or employee information must commit to ensuring that all such information remains strictly confidential. It is our obligation to protect the rights of children and adults within our District; therefore, any information which may be deemed to be personal or confidential which is observed, reviewed, typed, filed or obtained in any manner while under the direction of the district must be kept in the strictest confidence unless otherwise directed by an administrator.

Please indicate your understanding of the above information by signing in the space provided below.

I understand and agree to the stipulation regarding confidentiality and ethics as stated above.
